

User Front end

According to this assignment, I assume situation that customers can buy product through website. Website shows list of products, product name and location. When customer buy any product, the numbers of product be decrease (Inventory Update). When existing product quantity is less than 10, the system will send email to all admin.

Admin

This system has admin management, drinking vending machine management and product management feature.

- Admin management is to create new admin user for system.
- Drinking vending machine management is to create machine location, add picture, add product list and quantity.
- Product management is to create product lists that you want to show on website. Add product name and picture.